The authors have been informed of some errors that occurred in the published paper. The errors are listed as:

- In the M&M section in the main text, the word “performed” has been changed to “recruited”.
- Some references have been modified in the text.
- The type of randomization has been corrected as the random number table.
- The Mann-Whitney test was added in the statistical analysis section.
- The statistical test which has been used in Table I was added as a table subtitle.
- The study results were re-analyzed, and some p-values were modified in the text and table, especially in Table IV.

The authors wish to apologize for these errors.
